INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS

We create processes, procedures, and policies so companies feel ready to manage Individual Rights according to GDPR, CCPA, CPRA, CPA, and other regulations.

PRIVACY RISK ASSESSMENT

What is your privacy risk level and how can you mitigate those risks? We help you figure that out—and figure out a way forward.

DATA INVENTORY

Connect the dots between the personal data you've collected, where it's going, and how it's being used so you can make smart privacy decisions.

Red Clover Advisors bring data privacy strategy and compliance together with PrivacyOps™, our flexible and scalable services that simplify data privacy complexity. We refine, update or build a company's privacy structure, and make both the business and the legal issues accessible and actionable.

Our certified privacy professionals (CIPP/US/E/A), data analytics, data governance, and privacy legal expertise, integrate all the practitioner level knowledge required to deliver sustainable privacy program outcomes.

We firmly believe that a data inventory is the foundation of a core privacy program and serves as the base for drafting a privacy notice, creating an individual rights program and feeds the vendor management process.*
