

Top 10 Questions to Ask about Cyber Insurance

1. Does cyber insurance cover legal, forensic, ransom negotiator and crisis communications?
2. Do you have a relationship with legal counsel who is experienced with handling a cyber incident?
3. Are your preferred incident response vendors pre approved by the insurance company?
4. Do you know your insurance company's 24/7 hotline to report a claim even on a weekend?
5. Do you understand how the deductible works and are there different deductibles for different claims or expenses?
6. Do you allow at least 4 months before you renew a policy for underwriting to allow you to compare quotes and underwriting?
7. Do you have a written incident response plan? Do you have printed copies?
8. Is your engagement letter with cyber legal counsel already in place?
9. Have you role-played talking to an angry customer during a cyber incident?
10. Have you role-played talking to the media during a cyber incident?

The Red Clover Advisors team of industry experts and certified practitioners help companies leverage the power of privacy management software from implementation to support with privacy impact assessments, compliance with global privacy laws, and staying up to date as new laws are introduced. Our team of privacy experts can help you navigate through best practices and strategies for your organization. Reach out today!

DISCLAIMER: The materials available in these visuals are for informational purposes only and not for the purpose of providing legal advice. Red Clover Advisors, LLC is not a law firm, and if you need legal advice, please contact a competent attorney to provide appropriate legal advice with respect to your specific concern. © 2021 Copyright Red Clover Advisors, LLC redcloveradvisors.com

